

Austin B. Wiesner is a Certified General Appraiser with Powell Banz Valuation, LLC. He graduated from University of Oregon in 2005 with a BLA, Bachelors of Landscape Architecture. Prior to joining the PBV team, Austin was a licensed landscape contractor and most recently a manager for HOA and commercial landscape maintenance accounts in Portland, Oregon.

He has been employed with Powell Banz Valuation, LLC since 2014 and has assisted in a variety of commercial valuation assignments throughout the state of Oregon, including agricultural properties, vacant land, industrial, office, and retail. His main focus is agricultural appraisal work. Austin became a Certified General Appraiser in February 2019 and will be continuing his education of the appraisal discipline in the months and years to come.
